

THE WESTERN WALL—Jews still gather at this wall to pray and to mourn the destruction of the temple. Note the size of the individual stones, evidence of Herod's great architectural skill.